V.GIRI, J

W.P.(C). 31307/2007

Dated this the 5th day of November, 2007

JUDGMENT

Petitioner challenges Ext.P2 memo of charges issued by the third respondent only on the ground that there is vigilance enquiry pending against him on the same set of allegations. As a matter of fact while the enquiry was pending, the matter was referred to the Vigilance Tribunal, wherein an enquiry is now going on. According to the petitioner, there should not be two parallel proceedings on the same set of allegations.

2. On instructions, the learned Government Pleader submits that respondents 2 and 3 will not further proceed with Ext.P2 pending completion of the enquiry by the Vigilance Tribunal which will culminate in an order passed by the Government on recommendations of the Vigilance Tribunal. This submission is recorded. As the petitioner has no further grievance to be redressed, this writ petition is closed.
